About me

I am a UX Designer focused on creating practical, simple and intuitive designs for mobile and desktop.

Motivated by the challenge of understand people and give them exactly what they need.

Passionate about problem solving from concept on to development.